HAZEL GREEN, KY.:

There is now every reason to hope for a railroad. The people of Mt. Sterling and Montgomery county on Thursday night of last week demonstrated their desire for the extension of the coal road on unassailable terms, and if the Legislature confirms the charter of that road and of the Kentucky, Charleston and Western road, the probability is that we may have one or both of them running to this place by this time next year. However, we do not believe that we can secure either without some effort. Indeed, we believe that Wayne county will be called upon to subscribe to the capital stock of the road or roads that may be built through her territory. There will at first be some opposition to this, but every man who owns property must eventually see that he will be benefited. As we are situated at present, had is worth very little. With a railroad running through the county it would be worth double. Then why should the land owner refuse to pay a small per cent. on his present holding, when by so doing he can double the price of it? The tax that we will be called upon to pay for this improved condition may not be as much as one cent per acre, but we are not satisfied it will be something, and for that reason ask our readers to think the matter over and be prepared for the proposition when it is put.

Mr. S. S. CASSITY, for several years bookkeeper and reporter for the South-West Democrat, has been promoted to the position of associate editor. Saw him very vigorous and well versed in the art of writing, and we welcome him to the fold. Our acquaintance with SAM has been over some three years and always pleasant, and now that he is more closely connected, we hope our friendship may be strongly cemented by fraternal fellowship. Here's to you SAM—with only cold water.

Hon. R. M. PIERATT, our Senator, and Hon. J. M. OLIVER, the Representative from this district in the Legislature, are both placed upon important committees in their respective houses, and will both be found very efficient workers. We hope they may do something toward developing this country, and to that end hope they will support the bill to work convicts on the mountain roads.

Mr. T. E. BARTLEY has become associate editor of the Hopkinsville South-Kentuckian, and is rendering Mr. W. J. WATKINS, the editor and proprietor, very valuable assistance judging from the few numbers we have seen. The pair work well together, whether galloping or not, and bring the Kentuckian in the time, twice a week. Success to the new management.

The Sunday Banner at Lexington was thus the breeze last Sunday for the last time. Mr. M. A. CASSITY was a good newspaper man, made good paper, and deserved better of the Lexington people. He has our sympathy.

The Frankfort daily Capital and the Highland Blade have failed to smile on our sanctum lately. Gentlemen, what's the matter?

Notes From the Auditor's Report.
The number of legal voters in Kentucky, according to the Auditor's report, in 1886 was 288,279. In 1887 they are reported as 277,827. According to this report, which is made by the assessors in the various counties throughout the State, 110,652 legal voters (that died or removed from the State between the years 1886 and 1887, or were incorrectly reported. Yet, in 1887 the total vote cast for General Hunter and Col. Brad ley was 267,743, within 8,084 votes of the total legal vote reported by the assessors for 1887 to the Auditor. The number reported as legal voters, under the Oath law, was 300,089, just 88,190 less than is reported to the Auditor in 1886.

The amount paid into the State Treasury from July 1, 1886, to June 30, 1887, through collections by Auditor's agents was $11,584,038. The amount paid out to said agents, during the same period, was $8,609,748. The amount the Auditor refers to by foot note as follows: "This sum not only represents commissions for funds paid in under the head of collections by Auditor's agents, but for much larger amount paid by the Auditor's agents, and appearing under the heads of trustees of the jury fund, clerks and sheriffs, as the law requires."

During the last fiscal year the State paid to the asylums the following sums: Deaf and Dumb Asylum, $25,650; Central Asylum, $186,455.43; Eastern Lunatic Asylum, $29,522.01; Feeble-minded Institute, $29,105; Colored Blind Asylum, $5,000; Blind Asylum, $29,250; Western Lunatic Asylum, $91,646.97; inmates outside of Asylums, $12,095.21. Total, $437,174.92.

The bonded debt of Kentucky is $674,000—$174,000 in gold and $500,000 in bonds. In 1865, in addition the State bond amounting to $1,327,000, and interest bond amounting to $578,916.91. These bonds are unencumbered, and the entire is paid through the sinking fund, 50c of the revenue going into this fund.

The amount paid into the State Treasury for conveying convicts to the State Prison from July 1, 1886, to June 30, 1887, was $16,303.55, for guard $9,116.57. The witness claims for the same period amounted to $45,543.37, and the fees of jurors was $86,081.13, and sheriffs were $14,713.10.

The amount paid into the State Treasury in 1886 upon the State debt was $1,161 and in 1887 it was $1,077. Previous to the administration of Governor Knott the State did not receive one cent from this source, as required by the General Statutes.

The amount of tax paid into the State Treasury upon the street railroads in Kentucky in 1886 was $18,200, and in 1887 it was $263,536.

The white school fund received from the amount paid into the State Treasury during the last fiscal year was the sum of $219,111.11.

The amount paid out of the State Treasury to support idiots from July 1, 1886, to June 30, 1887, was $77,499.75.

The surplus paid into the State Treasury from the Insurance Bureau, during the fiscal year, was $2,969.09.

The salary paid from the State Treasury from July 1, 1886, to June 30, 1887, amounted to $154,253.04.

The total amount of revenue paid into the State Treasury during the last fiscal year was $7,028,658.48. Frankfort Argus.

Read The Death Roll

Which the bills of mortality of any large city may be fully designated, and you will find that mental and physical maladies, that is to say, those that affect the kidneys or bladder, have a remarkable prominence and almost universal prevalence. Bright disease and diabetes in the chronic stage are rarely cured, and grave, catarrh of the bladder and enuresis, which is the result of the trouble nearly amounts to inactivity of the organs involved, the danger may be multiplied by that pleasant renal cure and diuretic, H. S. McCall's Kidney Pills, which purgative is a quick and sure cure to the organs, without over exerting them, and the use of which is convenient, and involves no elaborate preparation. Dyspepsia, a usual concomitant of renal complaints, and debility, which they invariably produce, are remedied by it. So also are constipation, neuralgia, rheumatism and nervous ailments.

ARSON AND MURDER.

Pike County, Kentucky, the scene of a Crime.

A Charlottesville (Ky.) special to the Cincinnati Enquirer, Jan. 6th, says: The religious law just reached this place of one of the most wanton and diabolical cases of arson and murder ever committed in the State of Kentucky. The scene was at the Blueberry Fork of Pond Creek, in Pike county. The crime is the outgrowth of an old feud, and is laid at the door of the notorious Hatfield and McCreary gangs. About five years ago there was an election held on that creek, and one of the Hatfields came across the river from West Virginia and during the campaign in an altercation with one of the McCrearys. Two of McCreary's brothers came to his rescue and fatally stabbed Hatfield. Hatfield was taken home, and his relatives swooned down on the McCrearys, took them captive and held them prisoners until released Hatfield, whom they had stabbed, died, when the Hatfields, convinced the McCrearys of the justice of their action, stripped them, tied them to a post, and shot them to death, and sent their dead bodies to that position. Since that time a regular war has been going on between the Hatfields and their gang, who reside in Logan county, West Virginia, and the McCrearys and their gang, who reside in Pike county, Kentucky, all in the same neighborhood—the east fork of Sandy River dividing them.

So much for the beginning of the trouble and now for the last and most horrible scene.

A few nights since the Hatfield party visited the residence of Randall McCreary and set fire to the house. Alford, the eldest daughter, was the first to open the door and make her appearance, and in the glaring light she was shot dead by the McCrearys, who were concealed. Her body was very apparent, and was shot dead. His wife made her appearance in escaping from the burning building and was shot through the head, and although she was still alive, she will die, she will die. Randall McCreary escaped from the burning house with his children, and although a volley was discharged in him he escaped unhurt, and although he was shot through the head, he is now in the hands of the law. It is known to have killed one of the gang by the name of Chambers, and it is said, shot up a candle in the shoulder, and shot the rest to flight. So ends this chapter.

There are rewards aggregating $2,700 offered by the State of Kentucky for the arrest of the Hatfields, and their delivery to the justice of the law. The reward is offered by the State of Kentucky, for the murder of the three McCreary boys, but no one seems to be very anxious to make the attempt to take them, as they are already harbored in the wilds of West Virginia. One of them number constantly stands guard, and they defy the authorities, but retributive justice is now likely to specify follow, as their last acts have stirred up that whole section. This gang of outlaws has killed Mr. McCreary's wife, three of his sons and one daughter, besides burning his house, leaving him only three daughters; but if the Hatfield are ever taken dead or alive, the men who made the job will experience some fun, as this set of West Virginia toughs is a determined and desperate band.

Astonishing Success.

It is the duty of every person who has used Rossie's German Syrup to let its wonderful qualities be known to their friends in curing Consumption, severe Coughs, Croup, Asthma, the influenza, and in fact all about and lung diseases. No person can use it without immediate relief. Three doses will relieve any case, and we consider it the duty of all Druggists to recommend it to the poor, dying consumptive, at least to try one bottle, as $5.00 dozen bottles were sold last year, and no one case where it failed was reported. Such a medicine as the German Syrup can not be too widely known. Ask your druggist about it. Sample bottles to try, sold at 10 cents. Regular size, 75 cents. Sold by all Druggists and Dealers in the United States and Canada.

Our Tazewell (Va.) correspondent, under date of Jan. 5th, writes: "On last Monday between twelve and one o'clock, one of the most unmerciful acts was committed that ever occurred in Tazewell county, and great are the regrets of this people that such an act will be recorded on the pages of its history. About a year ago a lawsuit was entered into between Ball, old man, Billy Doland, and Jess Ball, both of Tazewell, concerning a dog belonging to Doland, which young Ball killed, then Ball's mother received some abuse from Doland, which kept the flame of anger burning. The case was settled court before last, in which Doland was the winner. On the above mentioned day, Ball met Doland about a mile from this place, a few words passed, and immediately Ball began firing his pistol at Doland, four balls taking effect. Doland has no relations here, a solitary old man, and is thought by his attending physicians to be fatally wounded. Ball, of course, has left the country."

Announcement.

The business of the undersigned will change in January, 1888, and it becomes positively necessary to wind up our affairs. We respectfully, but emphatically, urge upon those who owe us either by note or account to come forward at once and make settlement. It is expected and demanded that all of those who owe us to make payment. In view of the contemplated change of firm, we cannot open accounts unless we hope no one will be so forward should prefer to be paid. In winding up our business, which has been run for many years, we think those who have patronized us and respectfully solicit a kind consideration of the new firm which will attempt to carry on a business highly satisfactory to the public in every detail. Very Respectfully,
J. T. & F. DAY.
Hazel Green, Ky., Dec. 15th, 1887.

Rev. J. T. Pieratt will preach at the Mt. Murphy school house, on Grassy, in Morgan county, on the fourth Saturday night in this month, and at 10 o'clock Sunday morning.

A Young Wife Said to her Husband,

"My dear, I dreamed last night that you were an Angel. What is that a sign of?"

"A foul stomach," was his instinctive answer.

Do you know how you feel, and awake feeling as though they had no rest—no rest—no rest—wondering "What on earth is the matter with me?" would better take some simple treatment in TIME. Persons will neglect themselves, and put off treatment until their health is gone. What would you think of the authorities of a great city with its miles of sewerage to make away the filthy accumulations of streets and alleys allowing the sewerage to "break up" and spread contagion and poisonous gases from decaying matter to blight that city by disease? Yet your course is just as UNWISE. The human body is well provided with all that is necessary to carrying off the "muck," and you allow it to accumulate and decompose, bringing all manner of ill to the flesh. An old Chinese proverb is, "Keep your feet warm, your head cool and your bowels open." Make a memorandum of this and try it, and if you don't keep well there is no truth in the world.

MORGAN COUNTY.

Special Correspondence.]

Exet. Jan. 9.—O, yes, you man On The Wing, you located the item at once. You know that the young man, Rose, was living with David Ward near the upper Long Branch, which is in sight of this place. We intended, by what we said, to crop your wings, in other mischievous folk are some times treated.

Married.—Last week at the residence of the bride's father, William Bryd, Miss Mary Bryd to Lee Montgomery, Rev. Turner Spencer officiating. This wedding has been on land for the last twelve months. Guess there will be no divorce there, as they have given the subject much thought.

The school house at this place, which is a good sized one, proved too small to accommodate the students of the select school, and the Masonic Hall has been procured and the school will be taught in it. Book learnin' is growin' awful in this county.

S. H. Hurst and three of his daughters, from Breathitt county, arrived here Saturday evening. Our friend, John Linder, came along as pilot, but he got lost after reaching town. The girls will attend the select school here.

Rev. W. B. Lykins will preach at this place on the third Saturday and Sunday following of this month. Saturday at 11 o'clock P. M., and Sunday at 11 o'clock A. M.

Rev. D. G. Combs has just returned from Booneville, where he and his daughter Corn went on a visit. Corn will remain there some time.

Three of S. D. Goodwin's children have been very low with fever the past week, but at this writing are thought to be some better.

Rev. W. B. Lykins preached at the Craft school house, in Menifee county, last Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. J. M. Pieratt, who had a severe attack of erysipelas on the face, is improving.

Mrs. J. S. Nickell has been on the sick list the past week, but is now improving.

Rev. D. G. Combs preached at this place last Saturday and Sunday.

BLURT.

GRASSY CREEK, Jan. 9.—Rev. H. H. Little preached at the Cuckey school house on Saturday afternoon and night. He was very well liked. His school Sunday was on the name, and we never heard it handled better. There was a few additions to the church, and a good audience during the entire morning.

We were very sorry that Wild Jap's letter of last week was too late, for we are always glad to hear from him, especially when he does his own part. He is bringing me my hat and get your old cap, or I will prosecute you.

Married.—At the residence of the bride's father, George Chancy, Andy Toliver to Malicia Chancy, Rev. A. B. Stamper officiating. We wish them a happy and a prosperous life.

H. F. Pieratt, of West Liberty, passed through here last Saturday evening for Hazel Green. He was in an awful hurry, but we don't know what he was going for.

We met a man the other day who informed us that he was taking three or four papers, and that THE HERALD was the best of all. We think so, too.

J. M. Little has closed his school in the Hazel Green school house, which was well attended during the entire session. Miles is a good teacher.

Wm. Yocum and wife are visiting in this locality. Mrs. Yocum is a good talker, and we are always glad to see her.

Wm. Goodpaster bought a nice lot of hogs last week. This is the second lot of hogs he has bought in the last month.

Wm. Havens was in West Liberty all of last week supervising the tax books for this county.

Old Uncle John Wheeler, of whom we wrote of last week, is still alive, but very low.

Cyrus Perry, of North Fork, was visiting in this neighborhood last week.

OF THE WIND.

If you expect to make Xmas or wedding presents, and desire anything in the jewelry or silverware line, we think we can make it interesting to buy now. We have plenty substantial goods, fancy articles and novelties, and will sell for a very small profit, so we can duplicate them before Xmas. Gold watches and diamonds at prices no one can duplicate. Call on W. S. Sailer, the manufacturing jeweler, Lexington, Ky. Write for prices.

BREATHITT COUNTY.

Special Correspondence.]

JACKSON, Jan. 9.—THE HERALD has been advised and has taken a liberal interest in advertising the growth, development and wants of Breathitt county, and especially Jackson, which is destined to soon become a commercial and manufacturing town. Through difficulties to grandeur has ever been her motto, and while she has ever risen to it, and is justly proud of her officials, the diligent action of justice within her limits, and the fraternal feelings existing among her business men engage in the rivalry for superiority to meet the growing emergency of the times, and to keep abreast with the progress of the age and the customs and formalities of the day. Jackson is in need of Police Court to enforce obedience to a code of judiciously framed, and well regulated laws, and while all the business interests of the town could thus be enhanced and made more secure, Breathitt county would find her greatest benefactor in a Common Pleas Court composed of the counties of the old Judicial District, with a Judge of the learning, ability and activity of Judge Riddle to wear its ermine. As an argument in favor of this proposition the records of our Circuit Court prove the fact that scarcely a common law case has been disposed of within ten years. Then Judges Lilly and Cooper are sufficient terrors to those who make infraction of the laws, and need not the aid of the Criminal Court to serve the interest of the people. If our Senators and Representatives from this section want to be called blessed let them show their color by advocating what we all need.

The board of supervisors of this county, composed of James H. Sebastian, William Terry, John P. Turner, S. E. Tinslee and Eliott Howard completed their labors last week. This correction amounts to something near $100,000 over the assessment made by the assessors, very much to the discomfiture of many large land holders. The total assessment of the county foots up $290,000, a falling off of $100,000 from last year's. The action of the board will be generally approved, while a few will be found bickering.

We have been confidentially informed (having first promised to be silent as the grave) that marriage license has been issued for James More and Mrs. Elizabeth Gay, widow of the late John Gay. We wouldn't have violated our trust, but we suppose that before Squire More sees this in THE HERALD the affair will have progressed so far that it will be known to all. Then both parties have been there before and we don't see the propriety of secrecy "no how."

Several of our citizens are attending the Wolfe Circuit Court as witnesses for the agent, Lewis Tinslee, charged with murder, and transferred from this to Wolfe county, on a charge of venue. Wiley H. Combs has just returned from a business trip to Hampton and Hazel Green.

Thos. L. Sewell is in Richmond on business.

Hon. D. D. Sublett.

Our Salersville correspondent sends us the following:

The time is not far distant when the Democratic Convention must confer its honors upon some man who is to make the race for Congress at the ensuing election, we feel safe and fully justified in saying that this high honor could not be bestowed upon a more worthy and capable gentleman than Mr. Sublett of Macdonia. Although he is not an announced candidate, we are quite sure he will not refuse the honors if tendered him by the convention.

He has been a citizen of Macdonia county for a number of years, and his reputation as to morals, diligence and everything necessary to make a whole and complete citizen is unsurpassed by any and equaled by few.

He is a whole souled Democrat and always has been. He stands firm and true to his party's principles, and comes to the front with confident oratorical powers to advocate them.

If he should receive the endorsement of his party no man would more zeal and energy to push it to goal than he. He is vigorous and active, possessed with genial manners, and knows no end to his duty.

No man stands fairer in his community than Mr. Sublett, and if he would make as good a Congressman as he is a countryman, which we know he is able and willing to do, we would make a most worthy successor to Mr. Tinslee.

His nomination will insure victory for the party, and not only be an honor to him, but a blessing to the people and his party. With Sublett for Congress our man the represented will share in the wisdom of their representative.

ASTHMA
REMEDY.

SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS.

Having struggled 20 years, between life and death with ASTHMA or PHTHISIS, treated by eminent physicians and receiving no benefit, I was compelled during the last 5 years of my illness to sit on my chair day and night, gasping for breath. My sufferings were beyond description. In despair I experimented on myself by compounding roots and inhaling the medicine thus obtained. I fortunately discovered this WAX PELLETER FOR ASTHMA AND CATARRH, warranted to relieve the most stubborn case of ASTHMA IN FIVE MINUTES, so that the patient can lie down to rest and sleep comfortably. Please read the following condensed extracts from unmodified testimonials, all of recent date:

Oliver V. R. Holmes, San Jose, Cal., writes: "I had the Remedy all and soon more than represented. I receive instantaneous relief."

E. M. Carson, of Warren, Ky., writes: "Was treated by eminent physicians of this country and Germany, tried the elixir of different States—nothing afforded relief like your preparation."

J. B. Phelps, P. M., Orleans, Ohio, writes: "Suffered with Asthma 40 years. Your medicine in 3 minutes does more for me than the most eminent physician did for me in three years."

H. C. Plimpton, Juliet, Ill., writes: "Send Catarrh Remedy at once. Cannot get along without it. I had it to be the most valuable medicine I have ever tried." We have many other hearty testimonials of cure or relief, and in order that all sufferers from Asthma, Catarrh, Hay Fever, and kindred diseases may have an opportunity of testing the value of this Remedy, we will send to any address, FREE OF CHARGE, if our druggist fails to supply it, a full trial to sell you some words of initiation by its representing it to be last as good, but send directly to us.
